

ALABAMA INCOME TAX RETURN – AL FORM 40NR

You must complete your U.S. income tax return first, before you can prepare the Alabama tax return.

The UA Tax Office usually hosts several tax seminars with the Alabama Department of Revenue to assist nonresident aliens with filing the Alabama tax return. If offered, the seminar schedule will be sent out by email from the UA Tax Office in late February to early March. Individuals can register to attend one of the seminars by contacting internationaltax@ua.edu.

Visit the Alabama Department of Revenue website to view Individual Income Tax Forms and instructions.

If you have previously filed an Alabama tax return, you are encouraged to file the Alabama income tax return online using My Alabama Taxes \(MAT\) website.

State tax filing assistance is also available by visiting the local office, by appointment only. To schedule an appointment, visit <https://www.revenue.alabama.gov/help-center/>

Alabama Department of Revenue
1434 22nd Avenue
Tuscaloosa, AL 35401
205-759-2571

Tax Filing Deadline is April 18, 2023

IMPORTANT NOTE**

Beyond the general information provided here and on our website, the University and its employees cannot provide individual tax advice or prepare your tax return for you. Filing your individual income tax return is your personal responsibility. If you have questions or need assistance beyond the general information provided herein, we encourage you to contact a certified tax preparer or accountant who is experienced with nonresident taxation.