Reference: Sales Tax exemption Letter Ruling Number: 20-0098

This is in response to your letter dated March 05, 2020, requesting that the Mississippi Department of Revenue provide a ruling regarding whether The University of Alabama is exempt from Mississippi sales tax. Your request has been assigned the letter ruling number listed above. Please use this number in any further correspondence with the DOR concerning this request.

After a search of the applicable statutes, this is to confirm that The University of Alabama does qualify for sales tax exempt status pursuant to Miss. Code Ann. Section 27-65-111(g). This Section provides that sales of tangible personal property or services made to elementary and secondary grade schools, junior and senior colleges owned and operated by a corporation or association in which no part of the earnings inures to the benefit of any private shareholder, group or individual, and which are exempt from state income taxation are exempt from sales tax. As a prerequisite to exemption, the sale of property or charge for services must be sold directly to, billed directly to, and paid for directly by the exempt entity.

This exemption applies to sales of annuals, awards, articles of clothing or jewelry given in recognition of accomplishments and rental of caps and gowns when sold to, billed to, and paid for directly by the school. This exemption does not apply to sales of tangible personal property or services to contractors purchased in the performance of contracts with the exempt entity, nor the employees of the exempt entity, although the contractor or employee may be reimbursed for the expense by the exempt entity. Furthermore, this exemption does not apply to Contractors Tax levied by Miss. Code Ann. Section 27-65-21. Finally, this exemption does not apply to sales of property which is not to be used in the ordinary operation of the school, or which is to be resold to the students, the employees of the organization, or the general public.

You may use a copy of this letter in order to substantiate The University of Alabama's exempt status. I trust that this is the information you were requesting. Should you have any additional questions, feel free to contact this office at (601) 923-7015.

Under Miss. Code Ann. Section 27-65-85(a), it shall be unlawful for any person to use an exemption authorized under the Sales Tax laws for the purpose of avoiding the payment of tax the person is required to pay by law. Any person violating this provision shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, on conviction thereof, shall be fined not more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00), or imprisoned not exceeding six (6) months in the county jail, or punished by both such fine and imprisonment, at the discretion of the court
